COACHES' CORNER

BASKETBALL INTRAMURALS will begin on Tuesday night, 1 February, with the beginning of the second semester. The league is full, with seven teams, so we must start that early, to be finished by the spring break. THE PRESENT NEED IS FOR REFEREES, so if you are interested in getting a little experience, please let me know!! Andy Dearman (921-1290).

Some people have not yet played their first-round racquetball games. PLEASE PLAY those games, so that the tournament can get under way. Report the results to one of us.

A NEW IDEA HAS BEEN SUGGESTED: A SKI TRIP TO THE POCONOS. Some students have expressed their interest in a ski-trip during semester break. There are reduced rates available for groups at several lodges in the Poconos. If anyone is interested in this, get in touch with me--Anne--at 921-0441.

DEADLINE FOR THE NEXT ISSUE OF THE WINESKIN, WHICH WILL COVER THE PERIOD 30 JANUARY THROUGH 5 FEBRUARY 1977, is 12 noon, Tuesday, 25 January 1977. Please PRINT or TYPE your copy. No information can be taken via telephone. Reserve on-campus rooms in the Office of the Director of Housing BEFORE scheduling meetings--or notifying The Wineskin--to avoid embarrassment for yourself and your guests.

The question on the "publicity desired" part of the room reservation refers ONLY to The Wineskin--not to press releases or any other publication of Princeton Seminary. If your meeting or presentation is of such a nature that you wish to invite the general public, please bring your information to the Public Relations Office. Remember that local papers published weekly require a minimum lead-in time of ten days and press releases must be written and typed, run off in the Duplicating Bureau, put into envelopes (which must also be printed), stamped and conveyed to the Post Office --all of which means that any given press release needs a minimum of 10 working days between your giving us the information and the appearance of the newspaper. Any publicity photographs of visiting lecturers, pastors, performers, etc., must be black and white glossies; the person(s) portrayed should be clearly identified on the back of each photograph on a typed card scotch-taped in position; any writing will ruin the picture for newspaper (or magazine) reproduction.

THRESHOLDS: Prison Counseling

A Princeton-based prison counselling group, Thresholds, has a problem: its waiting list of interested inmates, doing time in local minimum-security prisons, is so long that many of them will be released before Thresholds can reach them.//To meet this enthusiastic response and get more volunteers, the Mercer County chapter of Thresholds, part of a nation-wide organization of prison counseling groups, will hold an early spring training session--12 and 13 February--at the Educational Testing Service, Princeton. Only by participating in the weekend training sessions can a volunteer join the group and teach Thresholds to an inmate.///Volunteers will join a group of approximately 40 students, professional people, mothers and househusbands, ranging in age from 19 to more than 60, who live and work in the Princeton-Trenton area. They have in common a positive encounter with the ideas and methods of Thresholds in their own lives--and a willingness to teach Thresholds to an inmate in weekly two-hour sessions.//In this teaching the volunteer tries to encourage the inmate to take responsibility for his life and actions, by teaching him decision making. The inmate, experiencing decision-making about his actions and attitudes, increasingly creates his life as he wishes--comes to see himself less as a victim of life, less of a burden on himself and on society.//FIND OUT MORE ABOUT THIS GROUP AND THE TRAINING WEEKEND BY ATTENDING AN INTRODUCTORY GET-TOGETHER ON WEDNESDAY, 9 FEBRUARY, at 7:30 P.M., in MURRAY-DODGE HALL, PRINCETON UNIVERSITY. . . . . OR CALL KATHY LEMMERMAN, 452-0775.

The fee for the training weekend will be waived upon request.
Transportation two and from the training sessions on 12 and 13 February WILL BE PROVIDED FOR SEMINARY AND UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, courtesy of Thresholds and the Student Volunteers Council.

1. RESULTS OF SENIOR ELECTION: Alison Halsey won the race for Treasurer. Because Rose Catalano and Jim Miller are tied for the presidency, there will be a run-off election (see calendar). The runner-up will become Vice-President of the class. This is sure to be a close election, so come by and vote: Your vote could very well make the difference.

2. Sr. Martha Ann Kirk, who holds an M.S. in Art Education from the University of New Mexico, is working toward a master's degree in Religion and Religious Education at Forham University. She hopes to find a vehicle for the integration of religion and the arts and considers dance a crucial vehicle for contemporary theologizing, going as it does beyond the traditional rational categories of theology to voice the personal, creative and emotional aspects of faith in life. The South Texas native is on a one-year leave from her appointment as campus minister and art teacher at Incarnate Word College, San Antonio. She is seeking ordination to the priesthood of the Roman Catholic Church.

COACHES' CORNER

Last week saw the upset of the current basketball season--a one-point thriller won by P-W over Westminster Choir College. So far two teams remain undefeated: Fogartie and Grant. This should add unusual spice to their meeting this Tuesday night, 1 March, in Whiteley Gymnasium at 9 P.M. Two good games precede this rouser. (But we still don't have a referee. CALL ME!

Also I still have in my possession a wristwatch left in the gym two weeks ago. Whoever owns it may claim it by calling me. Andy Dearman (921-1290).

DEADLINE FOR THE NEXT ISSUE: 12 noon Tuesday, 1 March (1977!)

Please type or LEGIBLY print your copy on paper large enough not to get lost in the shuffle (which nearly happened to an important notice this week). Every calendar entry and notice in The Wineskin is a separate item which must be collated into a chronological, coherent whole. It is important that you check with the Housing Office before scheduling any on-campus event, to avoid the embarrassment of having a happening with no place to happen. In cases of schedule changes, be sure to notify both the Housing Office (which may well have scheduled something else for the period you now wish to use) and this office (so that your prospective participants will not wind up at the wrong lecture or discussion group). Material cannot be received by telephone, and all written communications must be signed by the persons responsible for the announcements; please include the telephone numbers where these persons can be reached for clarification. No commercial advertisements can be accepted, and the right is reserved to limit copy as space requirements indicate.

DR. ROBERT McAFEE BROWN (Professor of Ecumenics and World Christianity, Union Theological Seminary, New York) has announced his overall topic for the annual series as "Theology in a New Day: an exercise in transposition." He says: "In these lectures I shall try to respond to some of the challenges and possibilities that various 'liberation theologists' have created for those who conceive of themselves as belonging to 'mainline' Christian bodies." The specific lectures, all of which will be presented in Miller Chapel, are:

Monday, 11 April, 7 P.M. - "Established Harmonies: a Diminished Seventh in Need of Resolution"--a quick review of some problems facing our theological tradition.

Tuesday, 12 April, 1:30 P.M. - "A Challenge to Established Harmonies: 'The View from Below'"--the theme of "liberation" as a new/old note.

Biographical details next week. ed.

GRASSROOTS.

Beginning now and continuing through the summer Princeton Seminary personnel will be fertilizing, liming and seeding grassed areas. It is especially harmful if lawns are walked or played on during the grass germination period. In the interest of campus-wide beautification all Seminarians are requested not to walk or engage in any type of athletics (INCLUDING FRISBEE) on any grassed area except for the space behind Brown Hall reserved for this purpose. S. McKaig.

CONSERVATION REPORT:

My memorandum of 27 January described steps the Seminary was taking to comply with President Carter's order on fuel conservation. I am pleased to report that, as the result of cooperation by all members of the Seminary community, the resultant saving in fuel oil for the month of February was substantial: Although February 1977 was 27 percent colder (in number of degree days) that February 1976, fuel consumption this year was actually 2,000 gallons less than during the same period a year ago! (However, the COST of fuel was greater this year, due to several price increases over the past 12 months. W. E. Lawder (Overleaf.)

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: An explanation

Last February when the seniors voted for class officers there was a tie for the position of president between Rosemary Catalano and Jim Miller. Rather than have a run-off election, the candidates and the senior class representative thought, there should be significant advantages in having two persons share the responsibilities of the office. "We should like to share our appreciation to each senior for the opportunity of serving in this capacity. Our hope is that this occasion will serve as a symbol of our commitment to a mutuality in ministry as brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ." Rosemary Catalano, Jim Miller.

COACHES'

Basketball season has just ended, and PTS has a champion--Ed Grant's undefeated team. Congratulations to them all! Fogartie's team finished a strong second in a pretty good league. Special thanks are due to those people who helped officiate--your help was certainly appreciated.

ABOUT THAT SOFTBALL SCHEDULE: That's no mistake. There'll be TWO games at 3 P.M. each week, due to the large number of teams in the league. To make sure that things run as smoothly as possible, games will be held to one hour and 10 minutes OR 7 innings, whichever comes first. 2 P.M. GAMES WILL START ON TIME: Please come early for warmup. UMPIRES SHALL BE PROVIDED BY THE TEAM AT BAT. One shall call the plate, and there shall be one for first and third bases. This makes everyone more or less on his/her own--so let's please be good sports! We will play as close as we can to the established official rules of slow-pitch softball. Good luck! If you have any questions, call me. Andy (921-1290).

READY FOR THE KINGS' INN RUN? The date has been set for Monday, 25 April--afternoon. If anyone is interested in a racquetball tournament--get in touch with one of us. Anne.

Association of Black Seminarians. Mr. Rogers, a graduate of Florida A & M University (in history), holds an M.A. in religion and philosophy from Howard University and earned his divinity degree in social ethics from Yale University. After serving as religion editor or columnist for the Philadelphia Tribune, during part of which time he was also pastor of Bethel AME Church, New Haven, Connecticut, he was appointed Race Relations Secretary for the Evangelical and Reformed Church. In 1953 he was called as pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church, Washington, D.C., where he served until 1957, when he became pastor-organizer of the Church of the Redeemer, Presbyterian, in Washington. In 1973 he was made President and Executive Minister of the Black Ecumenical Commission of the State of Massachusetts, in which capacity he served until assuming his present duties in Hollis. Author of many papers, he was in 1969 selected as one of "The Golden Dozen of the Pulpit," the twelve best preachers in Washington, D.C. Throughout his distinguished career in the church, Mr. Rogers has worked, through committees and commissions, to advance the "dream" of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. He is presently a member of the Board of Directors of AD magazine and serves on the General Council of the Presbytery of New York City.

"Women in the Arts" will be presented by Rebecca Knight and Kris Holmgren in The Center on Tuesday, 19 April, at 7:30 P.M.

'OPE SHENOUDA 'II TO VISIT, 'EAD EXTENDED 'HAPEL: 21 Apr

His Holiness Pope Shenouda III, 117th successor to Saint Mark the Apostle, head of the Coptic Orthodox Church in the world, will visit campus on Thursday, 21 April. His Holiness will preach at an EXTENDED CHAPEL SERVICE in Miller Chapel, beginning at 10 A.M. Known officially as Pope of Alexandria and Patriarch of the See of Saint Mark, Shenouda is in the United States to visit his flock of 50,000 Coptic immigrants. He will also travel through Canada, where another 15,000 members of his Church now reside. He will be on campus as the personal guest of President McCord. Among his entourage is BISHOP SAMUEL (a 1955 PTS graduate), who is Secretary for Ecumenical Affairs. During his student years the Bishop was known as Father Makary. Shenouda, a noted linguist-scholar, taught social science and English in a Cairo high school while attending Coptic Theological Seminary, where his achievements won him a faculty appointment. He combined these duties with graduate study in archaeology and classics at Cairo University. In 1954 he retired to Al-Serian Monastery in the western Sahara. From 1956 to 1962 he lived as a hermit in a cave, devoting his waking hours to meditation, prayer and fasting. In 1962 he was ordained a Bishop and appointed President of Coptic Theological Seminary; during his incumbency enrollment tripled. Since his ordination as Patriarch seminaries have been established in seven more dioceses; and he has established the Institute for African Studies, which prepares African students for missionary work in their own countries; a school for Coptic Music and Hymnology; and three graduate insitutes for Biblical studies, pastoral care and the Coptic language. He has also constituted the General Commission of the Sunday Schools to aid the thousands of Christian Sunday School teachers in Egypt and has inspired more than 50 religious/academic discussion groups of men and women university students in Cairo. His strength as a preacher and lecturer has occasioned thousands of people throughout Egypt to make pilgrimages to Saint Mark's Cathedral in Arba Eweis Abbassia and to Alexandria, at each of which he speaks weekly. Young people consider him a man of enlightenment: He has established scholarships which take Cairo Seminary students for graduate study to Princeton Theological Seminary and the Universities of Cambridge, Oxford, Rome, Vienna, Tübingen and Hamburg; and he is the first Alexandrian Pope to admit women to the Seminary, which in 1976 appointed its first female faculty member.

His concern for the pastoral care of every member of his church has led him to add many new dioceses. In Egypt alone 71 additional priests were ordained and 53 monks consecrated; 60 new churches were established; and 19 bishops were ordained. He has established 12 Coptic churches in the United States, 2 in Canada, 7 in Germany, 3 in Australia and one each in Paris, London, Vienna and Holland. He has restored the Coptic Church, the oldest in Africa, in Libya and the other Maghribean countries and established it in Nigeria and Kenya. Two bishops were ordained and assigned for the North and East Africa affairs, in addition to the two Coptic metropolitans in the Sudan; and he added three more Coptic churches in Baghdad, AbuDhabel and Aman.

He has caused the rebuilding of the old monasteries of Saint Pishoe and that of the Paromeos and the.building of retreat centers where young people may spend time in the desert and share spiritual concerns with the increasing number of religious. He has led the educational revival of the religious, preparing for a renaissance in the Coptic culture, and has stimulated the movement for social and cultural services among Coptic nuns.

Known for his devotion to the unity of the Church, he attended the first informal meeting with Roman Catholic theologians (in Vienna in 1971) and wrote the final draft of their statement. He is the first Alexandrian pontiff to have visited the Vatican since the 451 A.D. Schism. In May 1973 he joined Pope Paul VI in a declaration of concern for Church unity; other visits have been exchanged between Shenouda and the ecumenical Patriarch in Constantinople, the Orthodox Patriarchs of Moscow, Romania, Bulgaria and Antioch, and the Catholic Patriarchs in the Middle East countries. Under his guidance the Coptic Church became a member of the Middle East Council of Churches and steps have been taken toward a reconciliation of the Protestant Church in Egypt, the first meeting occurring late in December 1976. A Higher Council for all Christian Churches in Egypt has also been established and membership of the Coptic Church in the World Council of Churches has been fostered.

His writing, like his lectures and sermons, is noted for combining elegance and simplicity of style with pure, detailed interpretation of the Holy Scriptures. He is the author of many booklets and pamphlets and of 12 books which include a considerable body of verse, and he serves as editor-in-chief of Alkeraza, the official weekly magazine of his church.

The Princeton Medical Center blood bank is in desperate need of O+ and A+ blood. As you know, the Seminary program includes donations at the hospital, as well as the fall bloodmobile. Anyone able to donate should stop at my office, 133-4 Hodge, to arrange an appointment

NOTES

1. FINAL MEETING! Meet to discuss implementation of publication. Please bring all completed work to hand in. If you cannot attend, call Kris Holmgren (921-0156) or leave a message in Hodge Hall Post Office.

2. Haydn's "Lord Nelson Mass" and Mozart's "Exultate Jubilate" are the two major works to be performed. Joy Simpson, Reader's Digest Association Affiliated Artist will be the featured soloist in the Mozart motet, supported by the 40-voice Choir, a guest quartet of soloists, and orchestra. The Haydn work will be performed according to the original orchestration comprising strings, three trumpets, timpani and solo organ. Harold Pysher, associate organist at Trinity Church, Princeton, a graduate student at Westminster Choir College, will be the organ soloist.

3. The film, much of which was shot inside Russia, graphically portrays the plight of thousands of Christians in the communist third of the world. To film it Underground Evangelism made secret advance arrangements for their photographer to rendezvous with an English-speaking Russian Christian. Only minimal equipment could be taken in, to avoid surveillance by the KGB. Despite this handicap, Underground's man was able to produce some excellent behind-the-scenes shots of worship. Particularly exciting are a dramatization of the escape of Stefan Bankov--a young Christian lay pastor--with his wife and children, to safety in the West; and photography of an actual border crossing by agents smuggling Bibles into Russia. A collection at the door will defray expenses of the speaker who accompanies the film. [Continued, page 3.]

4. Dr. Steel's visit to this area is sponsored by the Princeton Branch of the English-Speaking Union," Princeton Seminary and the Woodrow Wilson School. Dr. Steel is a past Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland. A graduate of the University of Aberdeen, he has served various pastorates in Scotland and was for three years Associate Secretary of the Home Organization of the Foreign Mission Committee. In 1949 he was called as minister of Saint Andrew's Church, Nairobi, and the parish of East Tanzania. During this period he was a member of Mission Council and a leader in bringing together within the Presbyterian Church of East Africa both black and white Christians. For a time he was also Chairman of the Christian Council of Kenya, representing all of the Reformed Churches. A frequent visitor to this country as an exchange speaker. Dr. Steel has a concern for education and has been a Governor of the Callander Park College of Education for more than 10 years.

5. The Madrigal Singers Concert program centers around the mystic relationship between the rose and the Christian faith. COACHES' CORNER

As the softball season draws to a close, there are two teams with identical won-lost records--Fogartie and Blewitt, with one game lost each--HOWEVER, Fogartie defeated Blewitt in their regular-season game.

The Housing Office requests that all of those who have gym keys in their possession return them to either Mr. Reed or one of us.

Thanks for a good year! Anne and Andy.
